THPO OFFICE Rebecca Young-Man

THOP News: by Rebecca Young-Man

Children Story Time: On Thursday, Barbara Culbertson (Dimbi Hibajo), Millie Brigham (Shoshone Speaker), and THPO, Rebecca Young-Man gave a story to the Children at the CLC, the children had fun. Rebecca told the story in English and Millie told the story in Shoshone, and Barbara was the Dimbi Hibajo. All over the world and all over Indian Country have a story like this; some call her the basket woman. Here is the story told too me, as a child. Barbara and Millie helped me because they heard the story too.

Dimbi Hibajo: If you do bad during the day, the Dimbi Hibajo will come at night. The reason why she come at night and take you, and Dimbi Hibajo put you in her basket, and she turned you into a rock kid, it is because you did bad during the day. Because you lied, because you stole, because you talked bad, because you killed for no reason. (Like shooting a bird with your BB gun) because your fighting with others, because you were not loving to your people, because you were doing bad things during the day. When Dimbi Hibajo take you at night, you turn to rock, so be good during the day so you will not have bad dreams or go to bed in a bad way.

Activity: Have the child put their finger to their nose and say: No lie, no steal, no talking bad, no kill for no reason, no fighting with others, Love your people.

Have courage, be brave, be truthful, honest, learn wisdom, respect others, and learn humility. These are the teaching of our ancestors. If we follow these teaching, we will be ok. These teaching are not easy to follow, but we should try. The more and more we practice the easier it gets. (The story is in Indian English), so the story can be told as is, an Indian Story, most of our stories were about life, and how to deal with life. Our stories talk about animals, and give us a lesson. Please bring in a story that your family might have into my office so we can bring it back to life.

Cultural Activities: Moving together Pow-Wow, (May 30, 31 & June 1) on Friday they are having a cultural night pageant. Please keep an eye on the flyers.

Seed project: I spoke with USFW services, BLM; lands are barren because of the wild fires. The BLM does not have a cache of seeds. This is a business opportunity for anyone who wants to make extra money. They say that in a few years this could be a moneymaker. The BLM and USFW will give you the seed to grow. I am going to have a meeting with anyone interested with the governmental agencies to grow our traditional seeds. Please watch for the meeting date.

Cultural News: Every 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Wednesday night between 6:30 pm and 8:30pm, we have a; Pow-Wow club meeting, some of the activities going on are , the history of the drum, songs and children/ parents are beading and working on their regalia. There are artist spending allot of time trying to give our crafts, song and dance to the next generation.

Tuesday AND Thursday: Cultural Center -Neo Nobe, beading and crafting 1:00 -3:00 pm on Tuesday and 6:30 -8:30 on Thursdays. Call: (775) 423-8065 –Letisha Yellowhawk, or Rebecca Young-Man @ (775) 423-6075 or cell number (775) 426-8353.

hours, and enjoy company and socialize.

Thanking my elders: I would like to give a special thanks to my elders who I consult daily, thank you for teaching me, and respecting me, as I respect you. Thank you for your stories, your beautiful memories, and thank you for welcoming me, and trusting me with your knowledge, and love.

By Jill Wright tribalnews@fpst.org

Winds of 20 to 30 mph, with gusts exceeding 50 miles an hour blew over a power pole on Rio Vista Drive in front of the Tribal Administration Building.

The incident happened around 3 p.m. The Fallon Tribal Police were on scene to direct traffic and there were no injuries associated with it, but there was power outages.

Chairwoman Williams-Tuni stated, “Because of the hanging power pole and power outage, the Administration Building will be closed and services will be back in operation at 8am the following day. Please be careful and use caution because of the high winds.”

Emergency Management Coordinator Jackie Conway had informed the community beforehand about the strong winds that were expected that day as she sent out a weather briefing from the National Weather Service, which is a key component of successful emergency preparedness and response.

Roses are red. Violets are blue. Seniors deserve fun activities...that boost wellness, too! February is considered "American Heart Month" which is a relevant time to focus on heart health, especially for individuals living with dementia, as research shows a strong connection between heart health and cognitive function, including dementia risk factors.

On February 7th, at the Stillwater Tribal Senior Center a "Wear Red for Heart Health Day" was hosted.

Valerie Bill, Dementia Care Specialist stated, "Our mission to protect, engage and love our elders extends throughout their daily lives, including regular exercise, fresh air, brain healthy foods and an environment that encourages connection with the world around them."

Seniors that attended were able to get their blood pressure checked

What Causes Wildfires?

A spark, in the presence of fuel and oxygen, can cause a fire, which can further spread depending on various weather conditions.

A SPARK + FUEL & OXYGEN = FIRE! X WEATHER CONDITIONS

Fires can be sparked by natural causes, but most wildfires in the U.S. are caused by human activity.

Natural causes:

- Lightning strikes
- Heat from the sun

Human activity:

- Vehicles & machinery
- Cigarette butts
- Fireworks
- Campfires & burning brush

Fuel is usually dry vegetation.

- Grass
- Brush
- Trees

Oxygen is almost everywhere.

Certain weather conditions can make fires bigger, faster, and more dangerous.

- Strong wind
- Drought
- High temperatures & low humidity

What we are learning: Fine Motor Skills

Singing introduces fine motor skills. Songs that involve finger play give children the opportunity to practice moving their hands and fingers as they build their eye-hand coordination. Fine motor skills are especially important for learning how to hold a fork, write with a pencil, or tie a shoe.

Dial 4's: What are they?

Dial 4 is a screening tool that is used to evaluate a child's development. The 3 types of skills the Dial 4 assesses are the motor, conceptual, and language.
